A Q&A With Rally the Mascot

Rally the mascot has been around for five years going to minor league ballparks across the country. He loves entertaining kids and having a great time with the fans. Luckily, we caught up with Rally when he had some down time, and he was nice enough to answer a few questions we had.

Hi Rally, thanks for taking time out of your busy schedule to talk to us. So you've been touring the nation for five years now putting smiles on kids' faces everywhere. What's it like to go around meeting kids and being your crazy self?

It's awesome! I love to have fun and I love baseball. It is great seeing everyone have a great time at each stadium we go to. I love meeting new friends, having fun in the stands and acting crazy on the field. I always have a blast!

Now, I'm sure you've met a lot of other mascots over the years. Who are your mascot friends that you like to hang out with?

I have a lot of mascot friends who love to act crazy with me. When I am at home my best buds are the Kentucky Wildcat, Scratch, and Big L from the Lexington Legends. We love to play sports, video games, and show each other our best dance moves. I try to teach them my moves, but it is hard for them to keep up.

It says here that you are The King of Bling. How in the world did you earn that nickname?

Everyone calls me that because of my shiny necklace. Every time I visit a stadium I always make sure to have on my bling. A lot of baseball players want to wear it because they think it is worth a lot of money. Between you and me, I think the necklace is made of plastic. I bought it at a yard sale for $2. That can be our little secret.

We'd love to hear a funny story about something that happened to you on your Summer Tour last year.

Every night something funny happens so it is hard to keep track. At all stadiums I go to I love to dance with players and umpires, play tricks on the visiting team, play jokes on the fans and show off my amazing mind reading machine. My motto is baseball should be fun. If we are ever at a stadium near you, come out and have fun with us!

Besides entertaining people, tell us about your hobbies. What do you like to do in your free time?

I love playing all types of sports, baseball, basketball and running races (but you have to give me a head start.) I enjoy riding my yellow scooter and waterskiing. I spend a lot of time visiting schools, churches, and parties. Most of all I love meeting new pals.

For a guy like you, what's your diet like?

At the ballpark my pregame meal is two hotdogs, one tub of popcorn, nachos with extra cheese, two pretzels, cotton candy and a diet coke (because I am trying to lose some weight.) I love all kinds of ice cream and cake, especially from birthday parties, and I normally eat pizza for breakfast. I love things that are yellow, bananas, yellow skittles, and sugar cookies. Its overall a pretty good diet for a guy like me. 🍌
